

I hope that the FCC will please reconsider relaxing media ownership regulations. At the very least postpone the decision until this can be debated by the people. The action being taken by the FCC at this point concerning this issue is immoral.